

Antenatal classes

We offer a warm, welcoming forum in which to address your concerns about pregnancy, labour, birth and early parenting. Moreover, our antenatal classes provide the opportunity for you to meet other expectant parents in similar circumstances and to have some fun while learning.

We have done away with the long six week evening courses, we found a need to still do the same work load but split it over two Saturdays. You do not have to do both Saturdays, they are run separately – so if you only want birthing classes or only want baby classes – then you can do just one or the other or both.... tailored to your needs.
